My Predictions for 2024

These are more of what I think will happen this year on certain topics of interest. If I were right about my predictions, I would be somewhere else. But I like to think about these things. Don't rely on this info.

AI REVIEW PASSED.

Good: Growth of Small and Mid-size US Companies

Small to midsize companies will do well this year.

Crypto cycle will be different this year

1. BTC ETF will kick in high gear in summer.
2. BTC halving will tighten supply as miners will have higher difficulty to produce new shiny BTCs.
3. Solana will be the winner of the ALT layer I and possibly flip ETH
4. Meme coins will bring in degen and defi activity to pump/dump young fools who are going to get their taste of gambling in crypto

Massive Big Tech Layoffs

Big techs are bloated with employees. They are going to drop a ton of excess employees this year.
