Commercial Humanoid Robots

I am going to buy a humanoid robot some day so I like to keep track of the progress. I am highly unlikely to buy a robot from China because of the fear I have of Chinese government's ethics and mission. But I am listing everything I find so that I can see where things are going with humanoid robots with AI.

Now if you are a Blade Runner fan, you must remember the final scene of the dying slave replicant, Roy Batty...

If you are unfamiliar with Blade Runner and this reference here, please watch this video too.
