My Travel Bucket List

Finally, I decided to put together a public bucket list for my future travels. This is totally incomplete!

AI REVIEW PASSED.

US/CA: Carmel-By-The-Sea

I have heard of this place recently so have to explore more before I commit to going there. But the description I heard excited me to put this here.

A list of points of interest:

- Carmel-by-the-Sea, a small town with cobblestone streets, fairytale cottages, wineries, restaurants, and art galleries.
- Carmel Mission, a historic mission that just celebrated its 250th anniversary.
- Scenic Road, a recommended sunset spot with beautiful views.
- Carmel Beach, a popular beach with beautiful sunsets.
- Ribera Beach, a secluded beach with fewer tourists.
- 17-Mile Drive, a scenic route with two key photo ops: the 18th hole of Pebble Beach Golf Course and the Lone Cypress tree.
- Point Lobos State Park, a popular state park with trails and bird watching opportunities.

World: Japan Tours

I plan to go to Japan at least twice in my life.

I don't think I can cover it in one trip.
